

Released on June 7, 2016

Tri-City Wordsmiths Presents:
Conflict & Young-Adult Fiction

A writing workshop with

Eileen Cook

Author, Writing Consultant, Editor
www.eileencook.com

Terry Fox Library,
2470 Mary Hill Road, Port Coquitlam
Saturday, December 3rd, 2016, 2 to 4:30 p.m.

YA fiction is a popular (and growing) market for writers. This workshop will introduce writers to the elements of a YA novel and what readers, agents and editors like to see.

Using YA novels as examples, Eileen will also explore how conflict can be increased, providing tips that are useful to writers of all genres. A handout with writing prompts for your own work will be provided.

Space limited. Library registration required: 604-927-7999

For more information on Tri-City Wordsmiths, including future meeting dates, contact pandorabee1@gmail.com